Silhouette Stamp

- You will pick an image or symbol that represents your culture or background.
- Use Kara Walker's art as an inspiration to your design.
- You will first rough draft 5 images in your sketchbook.
- You will choose one of those images to be your final image and cut that image on a foam sheet to create your stamp.
